

April 22, 1940.

Mr. Charles Blossfield,
Hartford Bees, Inc.,
Bulkeley Stadium,
Hartford, Conn.

Dear Mr. Blossfield:

Your letter of April 16th received.
I am very sorry there was a misunderstanding about the terms. The Eagles and Cubans desire to play a Negro National League Baseball game in Bulkeley Stadium, Hartford, Conn. on May 26th, the rent $100. guarantee plus ten percent of the gross receipts.

If you desire to draw up another contract all right, otherwise, this letter can serve that purpose.

Thanking you for your co-operation.

Yours very truly,
